

THE NEWS-LEADER

THURSDAY, FEB. 13, 1896.

E. L. DAVISON, JR.

LOUISVILLE has secured the 90 meet for the League of American Wheelmen.

The session of the Legislature is now more than half over, and it has done nothing, and that is only half there is to say. The other, they won't do anything—not even elect a senator.

The Frankfort Capital remarks that "none of the neglected Republicans hereabouts have begun to care what happens so long as it is not to happen to them." The same might be said of some other "hereabouts" that we know of.

This folks down at Frankfort appear to have become so engaged in the Senatorial contest, that they have forgotten to call for a look at these books. Don't forget the books, gentlemen. Let's have a look by all means.

The Lebanon-New Haven-Faloon Echo clips a "recipe" from the News-Leader of last week about tobacco, cuts out a man's name, and publishes the balance bodily without credit as a local. Well, forgive you this time, but don't do it again, brothers, for if you do, we won't let you any more.

LEBANON property holders are waking up and kicking about insurance rates. They claim that in their town are entirely too high and are trying to organize a home insurance company. We are with you, neighbors, and you are not the only town that suffers from exorbitant insurance rates.

The only new feature in the Senatorial fight at Frankfort is that three Republicans deserted Hunter, Tuesday and voted for outsiders. Blackburn about holds his own, but does not show any gain in strength. The latest and nineteenth ballot was as follows: Hunter 62, Blackburn 61, scattering 9.

We wrote up a man, whose name we did not mention here, last week as being dead, saying that he was supposed to have died from a wound received while a member of the mob that killed Deyers and Mrs. West. We now wish to apologize. The young man we had in mind is now in the Lebanon jail, alive and charged with the crime. His name is Lee Boyle, and he was arrested in Indiana and brought back Wednesday.

SINCE our last issue, the office of the NEWS-LEADER have been moved into the third story of the brick building over the Louisville Store, formerly Opera Hall. We now have one of the most convenient and best equipped country newspaper offices in the State. Improvements in the way of presses and new type have also been made, and we propose to give to our readers from now on a paper in which will be represented some of our long cherished ambitions, and of which we hope to make you as well as ourselves proud. We have reason to be grateful to the good people of this community for the words of encouragement and money for help extended us, and trust that there will be no falling off in the flow of either—especially the latter.

MOORESVILLE.

From Our Regular Correspondent.
As an honest correspondent to our worthy county paper, we send thanks to the generous hearted

Editor for compliments, although we do not flatter ourselves that any were due in our direction, but as one of the number we return thanks with best wishes and luck to the Editor and prosperity to the News-Leader.

A. B. Handley and sister, Miss Kate, attended the funeral of Dr. J. W. Taylor, at Shelbyville Sunday.

H. B. Moore and wife are in Frankfort.

Mrs. Ollie Edleman, after a pleasant visit with her parents has returned to her home at Birds town.

Peter Barlow, Jr., made a flying trip to Bloomfield Monday.

Mr. Lee Bolyett, one of our wide awake young men, left for Illinois last week to try his fortune in that favored State.

P. J. Tobin, of Springfield, visited at his parents here Sunday.

P. A. Lydane, Sr., was in Springfield Monday.

Wm. Greene is ill at this writing.

Mrs. John Snider is on the sick list.

John Snider and son made a business trip to Bardonia Tuesday.

Mr. Thos. Westley has let the contract for a modern dwelling on railroad avenue.

Dr. W. S. Goode has had his auctioneer wagon remodeled and is now ready to handle everything in the produce line.

J. L. Moore sold to L. M. Greg one lot of stock hogs at 10c.

Cholera is still playing havoc with the hog industry in this section, hardly a farmer escaping. This disease causes annually the loss of thousands of dollars to our farmers.

Although our last efforts in this line succeeded only in reaching the Editor's waste basket, we hope this may escape a like fate.

ECHO.

MACKVILLE.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

T. J. Graves has been in Cincinnati on business for the past few days.

Miss Malvina Wootch, after a short visit with relatives in Oakland City, Ind., will return to her home at this place in a few days.

Mrs. S. J. Derr has been the guest of her son Thomas at Harrodsburg, since Sunday last.

Mrs. L. C. Peter visited her husband, a U. S. Revenue Officer, stationed at Bardonia, for several days last week.

Miss Ada Parks, of Perryville, opened a school at this place on the 5th inst. Miss Ada was successfully engaged in the public school work here during the past year. Those having children to educate cannot do better than to patronize her.

The many friends of Mr. Milton Sweeney will be glad to know that he is now able to be among them again.

Mrs. Arena Peter will on Thursday, the 13th inst., offer at public auction on her farm near this town her stock, personal property, etc.

DESP—On Sunday last at his home several miles from this place, Mr. Brant Casort, interned on the following day at a family burying ground on the A. G. Foster farm. Mr. Parrot was an aged and respected citizen, and many sincerely mourn his loss.

Miss Mary Stallings, of East Texas, opened a private school at the public school building here on Monday last. Miss Stallings is well known as an instructor by our people.

One day last week, while racing with some companions on the pike, Oscar Sweeney allowed his horse to run against the shaft of a spring wagon, running some several inches into the horse's breast; after being released the animal ran a few yards and dropped dead.

The condition of Mrs. W. M. Case who has been seriously ill for some weeks, is thought to be slightly improved at this writing.

Elder G. J. Young, of Lexington, will preach at the Christiana church here on the 10th inst. Elder Young has been pastor of this church only a few weeks, but his interesting and instructive sermons and his general disposition bid fair to make him the most popular minister that we have had in our midst for many a day. LOSS OF VOICE

After Acute Bronchitis CURED BY DRUGS

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral

A PREACHER'S EXPERIENCE.

"Three months ago, I took a violent cold which resulted in an attack of acute bronchitis. I put myself under medical treatment, and at the end of two months was no better. I found it very difficult to preach, and concluded to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. The first bottle gave me great relief; the second, which I am now taking, has relieved me almost entirely of all unpleasant symptoms, and I feel sure that one or two bottles more will effect a permanent cure. To all ministers suffering from throat troubles, I recommend Ayer's Cherry Pectoral."—E. M. BRAWLEY, D. D. Dist. Secretary, Am. Bapt. Publication Society, Petersburg, Va.

Edgar Moore, alias Jessie James, who was doing time on the town rock, broke out of a Missouri prison, and with a boldness that would have done credit to the original Jessie James, broke his chains and made a quiet escape for liberty. And he never came back.

The C. L. S. C. meets with Mrs. Ella Lee McElroy on Monday evening, Feb. 17. The following will be the program: Initial studies in American Literature; Some first steps in Human Progress; Book review, the Year of Wakenfield; A geographical study of Japan; Table talk; Clara Barton Chapter; Entertainment; A talk, the effect of Hawthorne's early life on the character of his writings; Recitation, Whitely Riddle, Miss Ella Craycroft. We cordially invite all who are interested in the Chautauque.

Detective George Hunter, of Bardonia, has arrested Leo Boyle, a young man who is known in this county and who disappeared shortly after the West Devers tragedy over in Marion county. The man was captured at Charleston, Ind., and he was arrested on a charge of murder, he having been indicted by the late Grand Jury at Leipsville having been implicated in the mobbing of Devers had Mrs.

West. Hunter took his man to Lebanon yesterday morning, but the authorities there decided to send him back to Louisville to the jail for the present. We have been unable at the hour of going to press to learn any further particulars concerning the arrest, or the character of proof against the accused.

One of our local physicians, who was taken before the Grand Jury at Lebanon last week, was compelled to testify to a circumstance which might throw some light on the mob mystery. He said that on the night of the mobbing of the two people that he was called from his bed at this place and asked to accompany some men to a certain house about half way between Lebanon and Springfield, to attend a man who had been wounded. This the doctor did and the house was pointed out and the wounded man found. The doctor says that he did not discover the identity of the man, but that he dressed the wound which was a shot in the shoulder. He says that he could not recognize the men who came for him, as they were disguised.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Haydon entertained the O. W. C. at progressive euchre on last Tuesday evening in a handsome manner. The contest for the ladies' prize resulted in a tie between Misses Willye Knott and Lettie Leachman, being won by Miss Leachman in the draw. Mr. G. C. Wharton won the gentlemen's prize and Miss Fanny Simms the consolation. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Haydon, Mrs. D. D. Robertson and Misses Lettie and Lettie Leachman, Bertha Haydon, Mattie Hamilton, Mattie Robertson, Fanny Simms, Julia Craycroft, Ellen Wadsworth, Flora Mould, Willye Knott, and Messrs. J. H. Eden, D. B. Craycroft, R. G. Boyden, G. C. and L. W. Wharton, J. R. and F. B. Noe, J. S. Clements, J. B. Robertson, J. H. Browne, R. H. Mulligan and L. B. Cain.

PERSONAL.

—Miss Rice Thurman was in Louisville yesterday.

—Mr. W. K. Robertson has returned from a business trip East.

—Mrs. I. H. Thurman was in Louisville the first of the week.

—J. C. McElroy made a business trip to Louisville last Friday.

—H. R. Thompson and W. O. Reed were in Lebanon Tuesday night.

—Miss Mayne Lewis, of Bardonia, who has been the guest of Mrs. Dr. Ray, has returned home.

—J. J. McCabe, who is now "on the road," spent a couple of days here last week with his family.

—Misses Mag Thompson, Jennie Craycroft and Laura McChord went to Louisville to attend the Irvin-Terry performance.

—Mr. H. L. Harrison returned Monday from Bardonia, where he had been called by the sad intelligence of the death of his mother.

—J. B. Ennor, a popular young man of McIntire, paid us a call yesterday and added his name to the News-Leader's rapidly growing subscription list.

—Mr. A. B. Hundley and Miss Kate Hundley were called to Shelbyville Saturday last to attend the funeral of their brother-in-law, Dr. J. W. Taylor. Dr. Taylor was one of the most prominent citizens of Shelbyville, and his death, which was very sudden, was quite a shock to his family and the entire community.

DIED.

On Sunday, February 8th, at the home of his son, W. A. Waters, of Springfield, Alexander Waters, in the 60th year of his age. The deceased was a lifetime resident of this county, and had many friends. He had been an invalid for a year, and his demise was not unexpected. He leaves a wife and four children. His children are, W. A. Henry, John and Sallie Waters. The funeral took place from the Baptist church Monday morning, the deceased being a member of that church.
